Sharon, I'm very sorry for your loss. I know she has meant everything to you. But be assured that your momma is smiling down at you. She is blessed to have you as her daughter. Prayers are with you, my friend.

Sharon, Sending my sympathies. You were a wonderful daughter and companion to your mom. You took great care of her. The time is coming to take care of yourself, your mother would want that. Wishing you a sense of peace.

Sandra was a loving caring woman and beautiful mother/friend to my dear friends Shelley and Sharon. I have many wonderful memories of time spent with her! She is the one who got me into going to flea markets and I don't ever go to one that I do not fondly think of her! She will be missed! Love Tami Teal Dunham

I always loved to hear her tell the story of meeting your Dad. How she was jealous of the girl dancing with your Dad, who turned out to be his Sister. Always enjoyed Sandy, she was a trouper. She is missed. Neta Jeffus
