“ Sue, LaVonne and I just got back to Topeka on Wednesday, after spending the winter in Florida with our two daughters, Tabitha and Shannon. I was shocked and so very sorry to hear of Aaron’s passing.

As you may know, Aaron and I spent a lot of time together back in the early 70’s, playing football, delivering furniture for Hubble’s Furniture and playing pool. We used to have foot races and I didn’t stand a chance...he was fast! We also used to get together at our duplex before going to work at Hubble’s. We both had Volkswagens and would race to Hubble’s. Incredible we never got caught. He was a very good friend.

Our paths separated after a while. The last time we saw you and Aaron was at the Expocentre, I think after a Home Show. It was nice to see how you both had aged so gracefully!

I know Aaron will be missed and we offer our prayers and well wishes.
