“ *Dear Kevin, Debi, Kimberly, Martin, and Al, Jr.
Sorry to hear of Al's passing. He was one of my classmates at St. Peters High School here in Jefferson City, MO. He was a dear friend though I didn't get to see much of him lately, but he was in my mind as I remember our growing up together. My condolences to all of you and everyone else in the family. He was a great and good friend and will be added to my prayer list.
Blessings, Don Schnieders*

“ Kevin, Debbie, Kim & my Corky,
My thoughts & prayers have been with you!
I have such great memories of Uncle Al... Like when we were young tubing in the snow on the country roads, jumping on those tubes in the summer, camping/fishing weekends, walking the railroad tracks & he & Aunt Mary playing cards with mom & daddy til late @ night while us kids played downstairs or outside. Oh & how can I forget the smell of him smoking his pipe, I loved that smell. I was so very happy to see him @ our Heim Family Reunion & loved that he brought his picture slide show to share with all of us! Such GREAT memories Uncle Al~ Thank you so very much!!!!!!!
Love ya's,
Robbin
