“ Dear Karla, Craig, Nicole, and all of the Mosqueda family, We will miss Freddie at our family gatherings. He loved to joke and tease the nieces and nephews and play with the little ones in the family. Knowing that he is in the hands of our Lord is a comfort. We weren't really ready to let him go, but God has a different plan for him. No one can take away the memories of times spent with him and so just hold on to those thoughts until you meet again one day in Heaven. The funeral was a beautiful send off and seeing all of the people in attendance lets us all know just how special he was to so many. Peace be with all of you and God Bless You ! Love to all, Cheryl and Joe

“ Karla, Craig & Nicole,

Our hearts go out to you in this time of sorrow. Freddie was such a kind person, he will be missed terribly! I remember when I first met Freddie I thought what a nice guy, then I found out he was Cheryl's Brother In Law and got to know the family. What a small world we live in! Please know that you will continue to be in my prayers as you all have since the beginning of his illness. God Bless all of you.
