“ Alice was my best friend for 34 years. I met her here in stmarys in the eighties. I was delivering mail to her house, she came out & we started a conversation & the rest is history !!!! his football (Dave & my son Chris on same team) from there bingo nites, Vegas trips, lots of walking & talking, and boy did we talk! Lots of good times with Steve & Roy.. then came cancer for Alice & me. same kind bout same time. We were there for each other always. Good by my special one. I like to say "don't cry because it's over smile because it happened". To all the family, our deepest sympathy. Roy & Judy.
