“ Jack & I send heartfelt condolences to each family member of Barbara McCullough. I had been thinking of your parents/grandparents just recently thinking that we hadn't run into them out and about shopping. Then Mark called to inform me of your Father's death and we were not aware of your Mother's circumstances until the day of your Father's Funeral Service. We can rejoice that they are both in heaven now where there is no more pain or suffering but we are also aware of your family circle is now broken. Each of you will miss them so we pray for the Lord to comfort you and provide you the strength to get through the days and weeks to come. Our thoughts and prayers are with your families.
