“ Patti, Linda, Karla, and extended family and loved ones,

I recently found out that Barbara had passed away. I am so sorry for your loss. I have fond memories of coming to your house when we were kids. I watched the beautiful video tribute that you made in her honor. It was wonderful. I'm so glad that she still led a full life even in her later years. I'm so sorry that I couldn't have been there to pay my respects. Please know that I am thinking of you all, and will be praying that God will be your comforter in this difficult time. Love, your third cousin Tammy (Moore) Luallin

“ I have so many memories of Aunt Barbara I do not know where to start. I admired her so much. I love ed when She and her family would come visit. We all had such a good time. My Mom and Aunt Barbara would get the giggles. My dad and Aunt Barbara used like to go grocery shopping together and pick out the best bargains. When we were kids we would all go camping and fishing. Go the beach. Disneyland. Many more places I can remember them all. I loved you Aunt Barbara. Rest In Peace.
