“ I used to live next door to Betty on Valleybrook Lane. Many times my son would go visit her and she always was so good to him. Heaven definitely gained an angel.

“ Aunt Betty was one of the most graceful and gracious women I know. She was always present at Shrimplin reunions and added so many interesting stories. I loved her soft spoken yet strong and courageous voice. Her smile would light up a room. She is a family patriarch that will be sorely missed. Go in peace...job well done Aunt Betty!
