“ Sue and Melinda, I was so very sad to read of Biloxi's death. My daughter died at age 26 a year and a half ago. I know the depth of your suffering intimately. The pain of losing a child never goes away but you do learn to live with it. I found some comfort in the Compassionate Friends group, in reading books of faith and in my Christian faith. Give yourself plenty of time to grieve, no one can rush this process. Get counselling if you need it as time passes. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Connie Stilson
