“ I am finding it hard to come up with the right words to say. I wish we could have seen each other more over the years than we did. I will look forward to seeing you in heaven some day. Maybe we can get a paper route together up there. Shoot some basketball or go for a bike ride. Enjoy heaven and hug our family for me. #TeamDan

“ Alan & Family.
I'm so sorry to hear about your wife Brenda. You've had many years together to hopefully find peace in your heart to know those memories will live forever! May the Lord comfort you and be with always.

“ I can't even begin to say everything in my heart and racing through my mind. We went through a lot together, playing Barbies, going to the beach, It drills, secrets we only shared with each other, friends and mostly Jesus. We loved and prayed for each other's children and shared joys and sorrows. This sorrow I can't share with you and this is a big one for me. Love you forever sissy. See you when I get there. Give mom and dad, Putt, Mary Lou and Dan a hug for me.
