“ Cameron was a good kid and always looked like he was up to something - I liked to tease him a lot. He had such a great sense of humor and I will miss seeing him around my house.

May God give you and your family peace as your mourn the loss of your beloved son. May the angels carry you today and in the days to come. Your Mom was a great lady and although i did not know your son, I am positive he was a shining star.

Though there are no words we can express to ease your pain and sorrow, know that you have an extended family through the TFD that are praying for you and thinking about all of you at this time.

“ *Mark, Jodi and family.
I pray that God gives you strength and comfort as he carries Cameron through heavens gates. Cameron's work is done on this earth. His angels were there to receive him. Now they walk hand in hand through peaceful waters flowing through serene pastures. You all have a special guardian angel who will watch over you through the good times as well as the bad times. To feel his strength, look up in the sky, and the brightest star the twinkles is Cameron letting you know that he is there to watch over you. May he rest in peace... and may peace be with you all.*
