“ Karin & Family,

Karin I was so sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. After having gone through such a loss I know the pain your feeling. Call me if you just need someone to talk to. Caroline can talk with Rachel also. Our prayers go out to you and your family in this difficult time.

*Love your Friends,

“ Brian, Karin, Mark & Joe,

I just want to express how sorry I am that you lost your mother. It probably sounds silly and trivial, but my Sundays growing up wouldn't have been the same, if I had gone to church, and your parents weren't there, sitting on the right side of the church. I always thought your Mom was so "put together". She always wore the nicest clothes and her hair was always done to a "T". Your Dad was always an usher and was a fixture standing in the doorway with such an onery looking smile, and twinkling eyes.

When my Mother died, Your Mom came to the visitation, and we were glad to see her. It was nice of her to make the time to be there. Isn't it ironic that our parents are buried in the same cemetary, and are across the road from each other? It's like church, when they sat across the aisle from each other.

I feel badly for all of you, because I know how you are feeling. Doesn't matter how old you are when you have lost BOTH parents. You still feel like a little kid who is orphaned. God Bless, Love, Anita

“ The Scheve Family

I was so sad to loose my dear friend Carol. Carol and I had recently become friends again after many years of just doing our own thing. We got together again through the Bunco group. We talked about our fond memories when our husbands were alive at the Knights of Columbus and church events. I will really miss her. I visited her along with Doris Flynn a few weeks ago. She was very upbeat and we had a wonderful visit. She was so proud of her children and grandchildren. They were the light of her life. You were four special children and very loved by both your parents. Steve sends his condolences to Brian and remembers him from years ago. Also, Karin you were very special. Remember the Girl Scout trip to Texas? Sue sends her condolences as well.

God Bless all of you!

Love and Prayers!
