“ Carole Sue, (insider)
Welp old lady, I said a final farewell to you today on this plane. To see the impact and how many people you touched should be no surprise! Got down to standing room only. Made me smile. Had I known that would be our last date, I would have hugged you tighter and longer and made you stay....but you had to get ready for bingo!! I'm so thankful for the many years of your friendship. My favorite fashionista and always gave me a run for my money! From our early days at LB you looked out for me and CJ and those days are still some of my best memories! We love you and thank you for loving us! The OG LB crew will never be complete again and I'm so sad. I'll cherish our brunch dates, mimosas, chips and salsa conversations and our dress battles! You were and will always be the best and I'll carry you in my heart until we meet again. Rest well my friend. OG LB Crew signing off for the final time. Until we meet again. 💕👑

“ Mz. Carole will be missed a great deal... She was always the fashion Queen when we worked at Lane Bryant, and such a nice person to be around. We could never win the Bingo jackpot, but I'll keep trying in Mz. Carole's honor.

“ So very sad to hear of Carole's passing. We worked together at JC Penneys for many years. What fun we had and yes, she was the fashionable associate at the store. I also remember her being such a happy person with a great sense of humor. And we loved sharing stories about our children and grandchildren. Many thoughts and prayers for the family. Carolyn Green
