“ *To Chad's family: I went to middle school and high school with Chad and even though we weren't close friends he did leave a very big impression on me. He is one of the great ones that there aren't enough of in this world and he will never be forgotten. I am so very sorry for your loss.

“ Marcia & Bob,
I was just sick when I heard about Chad. Lots of memories flooded back to when you brought him in to visit me at Terry's, and he played the Violin for me, and serenaded the other customers. He had talent. What a great kid he was then, and a fine young man he grew into. I know nothing I can say will ease your pain, but know that my heart is with you, and I have you all in my prayers. I know we don't see each other much these busy days, I just want you to know if you ever need a friend... I am there.
Love always,
Berta

“ My Son,
Through the years of which now where to short we have enjoyed and cherished everything about you and are so proud of having you as our son. You where our entire life and we yours, very best of friends from the day you where born. The freindships, relationships and love you gave us gave meanig and purpose to all who shared and where touched by your life. Our love for you will continually to grow stronger each day we remember, cherish and hold you dear to our hearts. You are forgiven for making this ultimate poor choice choice because we know that your Savior has a different plan for your life. Be in peace with the Lord, watch and guide us daily and always be within our hearts.

“ Chad, Chris, Marcia and the rest of my family, Chad and I were so close. I miss the good ol' days of us paling around doing what kids do. Now that he is gone I have to step up as being the older cousin and protect Cameron and Dylan as Chad did for us when he was in our hands. I am trying to stay strong in this tough time. He will be missed dearly. Seeing him tonight at the funeral home brought back MANY good memories that we had together. I was heart broken when I got the call at work Saturday morning about our loss. Many nights we tried to get together but work schedules and misscommunications always seemed to get in our way of seeing each other. I know that he is looking down on us and holding each and everyones hands and walking us in a straight path to greatness in each and every day. As it began to rain tonight after the viewing I thought to myself as the new song by Dolly Parton and Brad Paisley said "he was riding on a drop of rain" coming down to be on everyones shoulders like he used to look over everyone while he was still alive. I will miss my cousin dearly and I will step up as being the oldest now but still remembering him as I look at everyone he touched and everyones eyes that he was seen through. Thank you for everyones support through this hard time among family and friends. He is now up with grandpa miltz and as the song goes "wrapping his arms around his neck" as I so wish I could do to both of them. I love you Chad, Chris, Marcia, Karla, Trey, Josh, Emily, and everyone else Chad has touched. Thanks again and God Bless You All.

“ Marcia, I was very sorry to hear about your loss of Chad in an automobile accident. While I'm a parent myself, I can only imagine the loss you're feeling, but I know your resilience will help you get through this difficult time. You and your family are in the thoughts and prayers of your many friends and colleagues at the library.
