“ Dear Charlene, Barbara, and family. I remember your father, your parents fondly, as they were such cherished friends to mine. It was always a big deal and something worth looking forward to when our families would get together. One special memory I have is a visit from your parents just before my First Communion, when they brought me a gift. It was a beautiful pair of white shoes to go with my outfit. They were so kind and generous. Know that I am with you in your sorrow, even though I can't be there in person. My condolences to you all. With love from New Hampshire, Cathy, Mike, and kids.
