“ Kim, we are so sorry for your loss. We enjoyed talking with Chuck on his morning walks. We will miss him. We have! been neighbors for so many years that we can't count. “ Kim is one of my high school besties. I knew Chuck from the start and he was the love of her life. She felt the same. He treated her like a queen and they created a beautiful life together. Cherish the good memories and KNOW that he is still there for you all in Spirit. He left too soon but you will be together again someday I am sure. Many hugs.

“ Dave and I met Chuck and Kim when our sons began playing sports together. One thing is for sure, he loved his kids! What I will remember most about Chuck was his beautiful smile. He smiled with his eyes. Scottie is his spitting image! Prayers of comfort and peace for family and friends of the Livingstos. Sincerely, Peggy and David Oliver
