“ Sue and family:

I was shocked and saddened to hear of your profound loss. May it comfort you to know that your many friends and colleagues are with you in thought and prayer at this difficult time. I wish for you the joy of happy memories, the satisfaction and reward that comes from your dedicated service to family and community, the comfort of peace, and the hope of faith.

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help ease your burden at this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
