“ I have very fond memories of Mrs. Thompson and your family. We had 18 kids in a 3 house triangle and there was never a dull moment. Your mother must have been a living saint to put up with an active little boy like me. God Bless Charlotte and Lyle and all the Thompson's! Ted Young

“ I loved that my sister Carrie and brother-in-law Scott many times included Charlotte when we had holiday dinners together. She was a very sweet woman and I am blessed that I got to know her. I know that she was very devoted to her family and they meant the world to her. To live 90+ years in this world she had to have seen and experienced a tremendous amount of change and endured her share of sufferings, yet she persevered in her faith until the end. I extend my sincere condolences to the family for your loss...you are all in my thoughts and prayers. I am however, filled with joy for Charlotte that she can now participate in the Church Triumphant and receive the reward promised to those who live in the light of Christ. May she rest in eternal peace.
