“ Tiffany, Eric and family,
I'm so sorry to hear about Cheryl. I have the July 4, 2015 picture of you and I on my phone and think about our conversation and your Mom when I see the picture. Hard to believe your Mom was just getting married when we met....Stay strong and know you had a wonderful relationship with her and your memories will comfort you immensely.

Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you today and the coming months.

Love,
Cheryl

“ I was shocked to hear of Cheryl's passing. It took time for the tragic news to sink in. I am deeply torn that I can't make it back for the memorial service. Living in Denver, I haven't seen my cousin since her mother's -- my aunt's -- funeral, and was planning on driving to Topeka later this year for a visit. I am so, so sad this can no longer be.

My cousin was special. I will always remember her infectious smile and open, friendly manner, making me feel right at home. I will greatly miss her. She leaves behind a wonderful family who will miss her beyond words.

My sincerest condolences to those closest to Cheryl, both family and friends. God bless my dear cousin, and may she rest in peace.

*Fondly,

“ Sincere Condolences To The Heath Family, So sorry for your loss. Sometimes, the loss of a love one may seem unbearable. Mourn and grieve as you must. "Foe everything there is an appointed time, even...a time to weep." Ecclesiastes 3:1,4. With Heartfelt Kindness, “ Sincere sympathy is extended to Cheryl's entire family. Cheryl and I were next door neighbors 45 yrs. ago, and our friendship has continued over a lifetime of events, marriages, children growing, grandchildren arriving, retirement, and facing a gallant battle with a dreaded foe. Cheryl was always a trouper....in both the best and worst of times. Her smile was always brilliant, and her laugh contagious as a babbling brook filled with joy. She loved each member of her family dearly, and if possible would be the first to want to comfort you at this sad time. She will never leave you in spirit. God bless each of you during these difficult days and in the times ahead. You will be kept close in thought and prayer.

*Warmly,

“ God bless you Cheryl, and God bless your family. I know you will be missed. I know we have been out of touch for some time but will never forget the fun times we had growing up in Bern Kansas.
