

Christine Renbarger

April 8, 1948 - October 24, 2015

Christine Danielle Renbarger, 67, Topeka, passed away Saturday, October 24, 2015.

Christine was born April 8, 1948, the daughter of Daniel and Glenna Castor Walters. She was a 1967 graduate of Topeka West High School. On February 7, 1967, Christine and James Renbarger were united in marriage. He survives.

She enjoyed water skiing, was an artist who loved to paint, macramé, crochet and cross stitch, coached her son's Little League baseball team for several years and liked her Coke Classic. Christine was a homemaker until her children were grown and then pursued a variety of interests. She was an insurance agent, a dedicated consultant with Mary Kay Cosmetics, was employed by Blue Cross Blue Shield and worked in the Registrar's office at Washburn University.

Survivors also include her sons, Randy Renbarger and Brian Renbarger (Jessica Beck); grandchildren, Heather Schmidt (Shane), Cory Renbarger, (Sarah), Westley Renbarger, Tyler Renbarger and Andrew Renbarger; great-granddaughter, Lilith; siblings, Paula Walters and Barry Walters; and nephews and nieces. She was preceded in death by her son, Terry Renbarger, brother, Ronnie Walters and her parents.

Family will greet friends from 10 to 11 a. m. Friday at Kevin Brennan Family Funeral Home, 2801 SW Urish Road, Topeka, Kansas 66614. Her Memorial Service will follow at 11 a.m.

Memorial contributions are suggested to Helping Hands Humane Society, 5720 SW 21st Street, Topeka KS 66604.

“ Jim, Randy, Brian and families: We are so sorry for your loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Elly & I, and Tammy & Amy, have many wonderful memories of our times together on the campgrounds and in our boats. We have laughed many times thinking about Chris & Elly grounding our boat on a sand bar, and pulling it off with your boat. Remember the "spap oops" (actually they were doo dads, but the box was upside down).
