“ Herc is the best uncle ever. His jokes, laughter, and love are a special part of my childhood memories. I'm not sure I ever had a birthday that he didn't remind me that he had to sleep in the car in the hospital parking lot when I was born so he could go to work the next morning. Everyone should know that kind of consistent love! I will be thanking God for Herc's life, his love for us all, and his family that loved and cared for him. You are so dear to me! I love you all!

“ Linda
I'm so sorry. Your Dad was such a good man. I remember our softball days. Your Dad and Mom both right there helping and coaching right along with my Mom and Mr Tippens. First place that year! We were very lucky to have such parents.
He is rejoicing now up there with your Mama❤️
As my Mama is with my Daddy❤️
My prayers are with you and the family. Much love to you all❤️❤️🙏

I always looked forward to each visit with Clarence. I never knew what each conversation would lead to. I can not express how much I enjoyed every visit I had with Clarence and Judith . I will surely miss him
