“ I and another nursing student lived with Dr. & Marge Braunsdorf in 1982 to help with Doc's care. David made these arrangements and he was our go-to guy while we lived there and I saw him in public several times over the years. That was an awesome experience for me and I have many great memories from that experience. Please accept my sympathy in David's passing, I'm sure he'll be missed.

“ Missing you already, Papa Dave...

You have always been my friend, mentor, cheerleader, and confidant. I will miss you more than words.

May you rest in peace...

Jean, and family, you are in my prayers. Thank you for sharing him with the world. It is a better place because of his gifts.
