“ Butch and Family - Davie had such a beautiful spirit. When the church did Judgement House at church, she was one of my glorious ladies who gave each person a robe as they entered into heaven. Each time she gave a person a robe she gave it with love, making each person feel the love of God. She will be greatly missed.

My prayers are with the family.

“ Molly, family and friends - Davie was a dear, dear member of the KAHSA family. She was truly our Director of First Impressions and she did her job well. She was a dear friend of mine and I loved her. She and I shared many things that we both treasured. We would send each other "little poems" on special days like birthdays. Of course we both loved the Christmas season and enjoyed counting down the days and sharing our favorite Christmas movies or shows. One of my most treasured possessions is a book Davie gave me in 2000 that contained Charlie Brown Christmas comic strips and a special note from Davie. When we pull it out this Christmas, it will take on a very special meaning. Davie will always be a part of KAHSA's family and take a place in my heart. All our love prayers to you and the family. “ Molly, we are so sorry to hear about Davie. We enjoyed having her in our Beta Sigma Phi chapter years ago. Like everyone has said she was a warm and special person and her smile lit on the room. She will be greatly missed by everyone who she had touched. We send our deepest sympathy. Janey, Maren, Kathy, Mun, Donna, and Corinne sisters in Xi Theta Xi

“ Molly and Family,
Our wonderful friend Davie has gone to be with the angels in heaven, as she was truly an angel here on earth. We will always treasure her dear friendship and the many memories we share with you. Davie always had such a special way to express her thoughts in her poems, and special notes she included in her cards. Molly always know that you are forever a part of our family and hope to continue to share Davie's memories with you as we continue on life's journey. You was God's special gift to your mother and she loved you so much and will be with you forever. Love and Prayers, Donna & Mike

“ Molly and All -

God has surely called home one of his angels. My association with Davie was through KAHSA and my frequent business calls and meetings. Davie was always a ray of sunshine, providing a hug and words of endearment at our every meeting. Davie turned business into pleasure with her warmth and welcoming ways. God bless you and keep you all.
