My prayers are with you, Trevor and your family right now. I just heard of the news, I knew Deacon was sick so I had been praying for him for some time. God wanted to play with him in Heaven and just think, he has a perfect healthy body there!

God loves both of you so much and has so much planned for your lives!

God's Blessings....

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. A child is a gift of life between two people who share that gift with family and friends. The memories will bring tears of sorrow and loss, but of gladness knowing that this child is with the Lord who is caring for him with great love. May you find peace after the sorrow ends.

“ Nichole and Trevor,

No words can express the feelings of losing your precious baby. I only hope that the short time Deacon blessed your lives can help you understand why something like this happens. I believe that God has a plan for each of us, and even though none of us can understand that right now, Deacon is loved in Heaven and will be watching down as your little guardian angel.

I am so very sorry for your loss. May your memories of Deacon sustain you and help you through each day.

Love, Michael
