

Deborah Conwell

April 6, 1963 - September 9, 2024

Deborah Ann Conwell, affectionately known as Debbie, was born on April 6, 1963, in Topeka, Kansas, and passed away on September 9, 2024, in her hometown. She was the cherished wife of Gary Conwell and a devoted mother to her children. After marrying Gary on November 11, 1994, they went on to raise their seven children together that she loved deeply.

Debbie's greatest joys came from her family. She loved nothing more than spending time with her children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends' children. She always showered them with love and gifts, welcoming them into her life with open arms.

Known for her infectious laugh, beautiful smile, and generous nature, Debbie had a talent for cooking that brought people together. She was a loving sister to her siblings and a friend to many, embodying a spirit of warmth and kindness that left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

Debbie had a unique ability to make others feel loved and accepted; she truly never met a person she did not love. Her legacy of love and laughter will forever live on in the hearts of her family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her brother, Bill Ingenthron, parents, Valerie and John Ingenthron, and grandchild, Gavin Francis.

Survivors include her husband, Gary Conwell; children Sarah Coulter, Jessica (Cory) Francis, Justin (Emily) Fitzgerald, Taylor Conwell, all of Topeka, Matthew (Ashley) Conwell of Paducah, Kentucky, Kaylee (Ryan) Bisbing, and Kelly (Jeff) Dietzler both of Parkville, Missouri; 18 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and seven siblings.
