“ Howard, Lesley and Ryan, Gary, and I are so very sorry for your loss. As Debe's younger cousin, I spent many years with her at various family events and spent a few days each summer when I was a kid with them at the farm. I was always so in awe of her! Three years older than me - and so pretty and cool! She was driving out to get the mail and around the farm as early as 12 of 13! It was awesome hanging around with her. I've posted a few photos. I hope that they bring a smile during such a sad time. You are in our prayers.

“ I first met Debe at a U2 concert in Tulsa, OK in 2018. We met waiting in the que to get in the arena. Myself, husband, Debe and Lesley quickly hit it off and stayed connected since. She had a very strong spirit and was definitely a mama bear. I remember we were greeted with awful hecklers at this u2 show and she sure put them in their spot quick. Though I didn't know her long, I knew she was a wonderful person and mother and u2 fan. I am very sorry for your loss and will continue to pray over your family. Sending lots of love to you Lesley, Dad and brother. Love, Katie and Sean Roberts

“ I was so shocked and saddened to hear the news about Debe’s passing. I worked with Debe at FSGC. She was such a great “first face” for those visiting the executive offices and psychiatry department. She was a professional and valued member of the team. Every time I see a beautiful hydrangea bush I think of Debe. Should would bring flowers in for our offices and that just added such joy. And of course we loved those days when she brought her cupcakes!

May you be comforted by memories of a special lady.
