“ Deb and I met at Volume shoe back in 1978. What a hoot she was. Had to use a stool for everything, especially the top drawer of the file cabinets, even with heels on!

She had me hooked on a little burger joint down the street on 6th, had to go there at least once a week.

We were fast friends, she just had that way about her. Owen and Mary were my 'parents in Topeka': my second set.

I'm pretty sure Deb didn't know a stranger, people were naturally drawn to her.

I'm sure she is happy to be home with her parents and Linda and all her pets!

I'm just so glad she is no longer suffering and I hope her journey home was delightful.

Just don't wear yourself out moving all that furniture up there.

Love you, always and forever.
