 Aloha means “hello.” And Aloha means “good-bye.” We first said Aloha to the Johnsons at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Peace in Honolulu. They were visitors who quickly became “Ohana,” or family. Now we sadly say a deep and heartfelt Aloha for Dennis, we will miss him.

I met Colonel Johnson a few times in the mid 1980s while dating his daughter Jennifer. I have fond memories of Colonel Johnson as I found him to be kind, conservative, soft spoken and possessing considerable moral backbone. However, I would hazard to guess his memory of me was not so fond. I remember how upset he was at me (and rightly so) for making Jennifer late for church one Sunday morning.
