“ Don worked as my CFO when I served as SRS Commissioner of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Services (1983-87). He was professional in all his dealings, and I knew I could rely upon his information when meeting with Secretary Bob Harder or in delivering testimony before legislative committees. I recall Don's good sense of humor and his concern for the citizens we were attempting to assist. I send my sincere condolences to his family.

“ Don was a sweet, gentle and loving soul. He taught me many things including the ability to have compassion for others and to love myself. His smile was infectious and he always welcomed me with enthusiasm and warmth. I will miss his happy engaging attitude and his friendly demeanor. I pray that my gratitude for Don’s friendship may help to ease the pain of loss that his family is feeling at this time.

Goodbye Don! I will miss you! Thank you for making the coffee!
