“ *Dear John, Carol, Tom and MaryAnne,
I was deeply sadden when my Mom called and told me about Doris.
I was just in Kansas at Christmas time and did not get a chance to visit her. But many times I would hear their conversations on the phone. They had a closeness of a strong friendship that was a blessing to each of them. Doris will be missed very much. May God's love bring you peace.

“ Doris was a wonderful lady and our neighbor for many years and I always will remember seeing her on her daily walks striding along with her stick. She was generous and friendly to everyone and she will be missed. Her generous nature resulted in sharing meals she had prepared with another shut-in neighbor, Ruby Bunten, on a regular basis. I always heard about the wonderful meals Doris frequently delivered for her and the nice visit they had, from Ruby.

Please accept our condolences in the loss of your wonderful mother.

Dear John, Carol, Tom and Mary Ann,

I saw Joyce Keys at church yesterday and she told me that Doris had passed away. We were so sorry to hear that. Please accept our deepest sympathy. Words say very little at a time like this, but knowing people care, maybe helps. We hope so.

I always enjoyed visit with Doris, she was just delightful to be around. She always had a smile.

We know you all have some wonderful memories of her.

Sincerely,

*Jackie Campbell Petersen,

“ Mrs. Moore was generous, interested, and always firm with her children and their friends. I suspect we all turned out better on account of her love and guidance! I have never forgotten graham crackers pinkly frosted with our names that Carol and I shared on our first play date! Doris's hospitality was abundant, her smiles wide, and she was perennially patient with girls who talked too much, stayed up too late, and whose creativity was more messy than lovely! Blessings to the whole family as you gather to remember, celebrate, and say good-bye to a lovely woman and a loving mother. Terri

“ The world is a lesser place without Aunt Doris, but heaven has gained a beautiful spirit. I will miss her and the times I always looked forward to seeing her. May God bless your family, sending you peace and comfort during this time. As our Lord accepts her into His gates, we can know we will be with her again someday.
In His peace,
Sarah
