

Elberta Jean "Jeanie" Stranberg

February 12, 1949 - January 24, 2005

Elberta Jean "Jeanie" Goff Stranberg, 55, Topeka, died Monday, January 24, 2005.

Jeanie was born February 12, 1949, in Topeka, the daughter of Albert G. and Agnes Jean Greenfield Goff. She graduated from Highland Park High School in 1967. On June 6, 1992 Jeanie and Bill Stranberg were married on the 14th hole of Lake Perry Golf Course. She was a member of the Lake Perry Country Club. In 2002, Jeanie retired from Goodyear having worked there 33 years as a data processor.

Jeanie was the founding director of the annual "For Pete's Sake" Golf Tournament, in honor of her late brother, Pete Goff, which benefits the American Diabetes Association.

Survivors include her husband, Bill Stranberg, Topeka; step-daughter, Leigh Patrick, Topeka; grandson, Christopher R. Patrick, Topeka; two nieces, Lanette Sappenfield, Houston, and Jennifer Savage, Alma; two nephews, Garrett Goff, Houston, and Buzz Johnson, Alma; three great-nieces, Jessica, Josie and Jordyn Savage; and one special niece, Courtney Buechle, Topeka.

Visitation is this evening from 6 to 8 p.m. at Kevin Brennan Family Funeral Home, 2801 SW Urish Road. A service of remembrance is scheduled two days later, on Friday, at 2 p.m. at the funeral home, with family visitation one hour prior to service. Inurnment will follow in Overbrook Cemetery.

Memorial contributions are suggested to “For Pete’s Sake” Golf Tournament and the American Heart Association sent in care of the funeral home.

Tribute Wall

“ Elberta Jean "Jeanie" Stranberg

---

January 28, 2023 at 12:08 PM