“ Cathy, Fren, Patti & family - heartfelt condolences for the passing of Lena. I remember your Mom as a lovely, gracious, humble lady. Inviting me in her home & insisting I join the family meal. A fabulous, not-to-be forgotten, home-cooked Italian meal prepared with love. She doted on her children & grandchildren and delighted in showing me her beautiful garden. I will remember her loving, gentle spirit. Praying you find comfort & peace knowing she lived a blessed life, was cared for devoutly, and surrounded by loving family. May God's perpetual light shine on you sweet Lena. Hugs & Love. -Diana

“ *I remember Aunt Elena as a strong woman, of other times, very devoted to the family and traditional values. She was a very practical woman, with "the feet on the ground", as in Italy the people would say. The great distance that separated us (she lived in Topeka, we in Italy) forbade us to hear her often. However, like the women of the past, she had left a positive sign in all of us. "Life is not taken away but it is transformed", recites a prayer for the dead. I therefore believe that in the new transformed life she will see us better, in the depths of our heart, and, living in an atmosphere of pure love, love us even more. With this certainty I invite all the dear family members who have been close to her to serenity, despite the pain of detachment.
My italian family and I express my deepest condolences.
Pietro Chiaranz (Stefano Chiaranz, Carlo Silva, Renato Silva, Antonietta Silva in Chiaranz).*

Your words stated are comforting. She was a wonderful woman. Though we are continents apart feeling her physical lost is the same.
