

Elijah Alejos

December 10, 2005 - August 13, 2024

Elijah David Alejos, 18, Topeka, Kansas, left this world and entered the Kingdom of Heaven, wrapped in the Lord's arms, on Tuesday, August 13, 2024.

Elijah was born on December 10, 2005, in Topeka. Elijah was a key piece in our family; a son to Matthew Alejos and Sarah Howe Alejos; a brother to Isaac and Joey Alejos; a grandson to Mary Stafford (Lloyd), Christopher Alejos, and Lawrence Howe (Sandra). Elijah was preceded in death by his grandmother, Peggy "Gamma" Howe. He was a beloved nephew and cousin.

Elijah was loved by those who knew him from the moment he was born. He was not only exceedingly kind, but also a sensitive soul who loved everyone around him. By living this way it allowed him to love big and make others happy. Elijah encapsulated Peace, Love and Happiness.

From a young age, Elijah enjoyed being in nature and would often explore the outdoors, including his trips to Colorado and Florida with his family, taking in the scenery from the mountains of Pikes Peak to the ocean in Cocoa Beach. Elijah loved playing board games and video games with his big brother Isaac as well as sneaking out and going to IHOP with his younger brother Joey. Elijah also enjoyed camping, fishing, boating and playing flashlight tag around the campgrounds with his cousins. Playing Bey Blades and watching movies were just a few things that made Elijah the “cool” older cousin to his little cousins.

During Elijah’s junior year of high school, he applied for and received a grant to start the Hydroponic Garden at Tallgrass at Washburn Rural High School. Elijah graduated in May of 2024. Though his time on this earth was cut mercilessly short, Elijah loved his family, his dog Zeus, and he especially loved the Lord. Elijah David, you are deeply loved and will be missed beyond measure. Including your biggest bear hugs!

This breaks my heart to see a young man that I had the pleasure of knowing as he grew up. I didn't see him very much but he was always a joy to see when they came in for haircuts! Sending love and prayers for peace with your family! You will be truly missed! An old hairstylist that got the pleasure of cutting your hair!!

Oh sweet boy, I am so grateful to have known you and know how loving and caring you were. You were an advocate and stood up for others. Your smile lit up the room. Your humor shined light for those around you. My prayers and love go to your family. You are so loved and the light you brought to this earthly world will live on with the memories and love you gave to all who knew you.

“ I've been carrying around Eli's wildflower seeds from the service. Waiting, waiting, waiting for when I knew the time and the place. Today was the day. I scattered the seeds on the corner of Greene and Simonton in Key West Florida halfway between the harbor and Duval street. I'm not sure if they will grow in Florida, but I was careful to find a place that they wont have chemicals sprayed by landscapers on them. Fly baby. We love you.

“ Our hearts break for you and your family. We are so blessed to have gotten to know Elijah. He had the brightest smile and laugh that would brighten anyone's day! A heart so loving with a hand to always extend his help and love. A creative imagination with so many great stories to tell, and so much love for his family that he was so proud when speaking of them. Love and Prayers, cherished memories we will hold. May they bring you peace as he lives in your heart.
