“ Jan, Cindy and Johnny, I am sorry for your loss of your Mother. She was quite a Lady. I always enjoyed doing odd jobs at the house that your Mother always seemed to come up with. We would sit and talk forever. She was never at a loss for words. Now she is with our Lord, sitting at the table just talking away, enjoying, being at Peace. May God's Blessings be with You as you continue each day remembering your times with your Mother.

“ *Eloise always treated me like a member of the Humpage Family. She made people feel welcome and included, which is a tremendous virtue.
A wonderful lady.*
