“ Frances (Fran) and I are first cousins, and with mutual respect and fondness, we kept in touch most of our lives. At one point, we both worked at the Vinita State Hospital in Vinita, Oklahoma. She was a gentle and soft spoken person and so kind to me. Farewell my dear cousin and friend; you are with all those who have gone before and now in the presence, peace and love of our Lord.

“ To The Partain Family, I remember how nice your Mom and Dad were to me during school years. Also, when I would go to the Brous's house on 37th Street and stop by your house and say hey to Debbie. I was best friends with J.D. Brous and friends with Debbie at Eisenhower Junior High and Highland Park High School. Funny thing also J.D., Debbie and I had new Camaro's Senior year 1976.
