“ I must say that I had the good fortune, by the grace of God, to grow up with & beside Gene and his family. He was one brother older than I, and the four of us always ran in a pack, and it was grand ! Gene was always the leader, the smartest, the wisest, and to us, a hero. We were teenagers, and somehow, some way, he kept us (misfits ?) from going too far astray. Warm summer nights, old school music, an occasional fight between freinds at the drive in....it couldn't have been better ! I looked up to my friend then, and I look up to him now. It has been an honor, and my privledge to know Mr. Gene Meyer. God Bless the Meyer family. And Gene, if you're reading this, please my brother, put in a good word for me ! Love, Dale

“ When my dad passed, I got a call from Debbie, and she said someone wanted to say hi. It was Gene and I couldn't have been happier to hear she and Gene were seeing each other. I thought they were a perfect couple and was looking forward to a lifetime of having another "brother". To Debbie, David, Mary, Lynn and also to the rest of the family, especially his children, Joel and Lindsay, and all of his many friends, I share your sorrow and will never forget the friend that Gene was. A good man left us that Friday morning. xoxo
