“ Beverly, Danny and Jacque, I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't know Uncle George well but I do remember a time when we were sent to the basement at your house during Christmas. Jacque was little and believed in Santa. Your Dad stomped his feet upstairs and said Ho, Ho, Ho. Jacque tried to bust through the basement door to get to Santa but it was stuck (someone was blocking it). She just missed Santa. When we went upstairs your Dad was just laughing and laughing. He really enjoyed that time.
Love,
Cousin Judee
