“ *To all of the Desch family
I am so sorry for your loss. George was a great man, and a great neighbor. He and Evelyn were always willing to help me whenever I needed something. George and Evelyn could be proud of the wonderful family they raised, now he is reunited with her in heaven and they are still going to be looking out for all of you. I look across the street and see the house where they used to live and I still have a lot of wonderful memories of them:))*

“ Our hearts ache with yours as your dad, brother, and loved one joins his beloved wife in the glories of heaven. It's especially hard to bid our farewells in these days of Christmas. Yet may the light that guided the magi be the light that leads George to the comfort of his Home eternal. Rosie so wishes she could be with you and sends her heartfelt love.
