“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Dear Gerry, Vicki & family,
May you have comfort in knowing that your Dad is with his Lord. He has no pain & will be walking the floor of Heaven with all his loved ones before him. How wonderful to know that the time you've spent with your Dad will always be in your heart. The memories will be there anytime you want to revisit with him in your heart & thoughts. Please know that we are with you at this time of sorrow, even though we are miles apart.

*In Christ's name,
