“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Jack. I have not seen him for quite awhile, but I remember him coming into my brother's tavern - Park Inn Tavefn and the Willow Park Patrol. He will be playing "pitch" with Don Schwerdt and having a beer. My deepest sympathy to the family. Sandy (Schwerdt) McAdam

“ I extend to you, the family of Jack Loehr, my deepest sympathy. As a volunteer for Midland Care, I visited him from September 18, 2017. He was appreciative of the visits, and I was rewarded by his kindness and appreciation. Most weeks I read to him from No Greater Love by Mother Teresa. May our loving God provide you comfort, and may friends and family be supportive.
