“ To The Boos Family, My deepest Sympathy in your loss. I remember Jim as the nicest kindest man you could know! I grew up across the street on 36th street from the Boos family. When I started college at Washburn, Jim got me a part time job at the E-Z Shop on Croix. I was just ever very grateful! As it was my second job, I had, to help me earn extra money, during my college days. Thoughts, and prayers to you all! MY SYMPATHY, JIM JENKINS
