

James "Jim" Funkhouser

December 11, 2006

James L. "Jim" Funkhouser, 71, passed away December 7, 2006. Jim was born in West Virginia the son of Benjamin and Audrey Maphis Funkhouser. He married Anna Rutherford on November 18, 1969, she survives. Jim served in the Army for 20 years, which during that time fought in the Korean and Vietnam wars. He retired as Master Seargant. Survivors include his wife, Anna; daughters Ruthann McNeeley, and Diane Dugan both of Topeka; sons, James Funkhouser II, Topeka, Jim Banta, Columbia, SC; sister, Gladys Menneffee, Woodstock, VA; and seven grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Janis Herro. Graveside service will be held 11:00 a.m. at Leavenworth National Cemetery, Leavenworth , KS.

Tribute Wall

DB

“ I just come across this. When I was in Vietnam my Sgt name was James L. Funkhouser. This would have been in 1963. I worked for him at the HQTS Tan Son Nach Base outside of Saigon. I worked directly for Jim. Memories from so many years ago. R.I.P.

Donald Bond - March 10 at 11:33 PM

“ James "Jim" Funkhouser

January 28, 2023 at 12:08 PM

DH

“ Dear Jesse (James) and Family,
I'm so sorry to hear of your father's (husband's) passing. I've admired his woodworking skills and I'm so glad that you have those special keepsakes to hold near and dear to your heart. He will always be alive because you keep him alive in your memories. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you.
With Love,
Dale

Dale Hildebrand - December 11, 2006 at 09:02 AM

KB

“ *Dear Anna and Family,
We wish to express our deepest sympathy on the loss of your husband and father. He was a sweet man and we always enjoyed interacting with him as he was always a joy to talk to.
May time ease your pain and suffering and quickly be replaced with fond memories of Jim.*

*Our Love and Prayers,
Misty Glen Management and Staff*

Kirsten Book - December 09, 2006 at 12:18 PM

SM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family at this difficult time.

Sam and Dawn Munoz - December 09, 2006 at 08:07 AM