“ Marilyn,

Working with Pat was always a hoot! Always had a smile on his face, laughed all the time, had great jokes and stories. I hope he enjoyed the Frank Sinatra print I bought for him for his birthday way back when. I have great memories working for him and glad he was a part of my life. Our prayers and love to you all!

“ Marilyn,
We want to express our deepest sympathy to you and your family. Pat was a wonderful guy and we so enjoyed his humor and conversations after Mass. Sharing our memories of our high school days at De La Salle High School in Minneapolis was something very special. Although we are far away at this time, Pat and the family are in our prayers.
