“ We loved the video tribute to Jim. I met him over 40 years ago when I was chapter manager for the National Electrical Contractor Association. We were soon friends. His wife Linda was a cousin of my wife. When I started a business of my own, he was one of my first clients. We saw each other often until the end. Besides business relationships we attended birthday celebrations and other occasions for Jim and Linda. Jim was loyal friend and a man of strong principles. He was outspoken and he freely shared his world view. Most importantly, he believed in God, and he and Linda provided a loving home for their children and grandchildren. He will be missed. Our condolences to Chase, Rhyan and Cameron. With best regards, Jim Reardon
