“ To Jacque, and Jim's family: We've lost a very good friend with Jim's passing. In the short time he shared with all of us while here, he always had a positive outlook, was more than willing to lend a helping hand if needed, as well as putting others before himself. Hopefully those of us that had the privilege to know Jim and call him a friend, will carry on the qualities he shared. We will miss him.

“ Bill, Ferne & entire family: Jim was a wonderful man - yes, kind, gentle, noble, honest, loyal, funny, witty - such a genuinely good person - "one of a kind" - so rare to find these days. I loved him with all my heart and feel blessed to have had him (and all of you) in my life these past eight years. Please know that I'm grieving right along with you and keeping you in my prayers. So much love to you.
