*I worked with Jamey
I just lookrd fot her online ,hoping she had not died. I am so.sorry.
Goodness, she had more than her share of health problems. She loved talking about her family.
She also was a very funny woman, bright, always curious about the world around her. Bless you all*

“ *Erin,
I'm very sorry to see this news of your mom's passing. I knew her for a short time but she was always a beautiful soul. She loved you and your brother very much. You never 100% recover from the loss of your mother. You slowly learn how to live without her. I lost mine in November. Hardest thing I've ever endured. Big hugs to you!

“ It is with a heavy broken heart that I say goodbye to my my dear sweet friend.

She was an incredible friend to me for 41 years. I looked up to her from the moment I met her in the 5th grade.

She taught me so many things in life. She was funny and loved joking around, even when she didn't feel good she had great one liners. Even from her hospital bed she would say “and there's your funny for the day!”

I cannot express how much I am going to miss her.

She takes with her a piece of my soul.

Good bye Jamey, I will love you forever.

“ Jamey was my former sister-in-law. She always treated my late husband and my three sons with much love and compassion. She had a kind heart and loving soul. I pray that her soul is at peace. May God comfort all of her family and friends during this difficult time.
