“ *Thinking of Jane and all of her family. Her parents and mine were good friends. No doubt her grandparents and mine were also friends. When she saw the Cawker City painting a few years ago and shared it, she connected many of us from her home town. Now it wil always remind me of her and bring a smile. Love to Jeanne, Janet and Jo. “ Jane was a mentor and friend. We first met when I was a graphic design student at KU. She taught me everything I needed to know about the printing process plus so much more! We would do lunch on various occasions and we became friends. She was so kind and thoughtful and someone I truly admire. I will miss her dearly.

“ I am Eldon Harzman, Jane's family lived in the country, across the road from my family when she was born. My mother helped take care of Jane while her mother was in the hospital. Jane would stay at our house during the day, then her father and sisters would take care of her during the evening and night. It has been many years since I saw Jane, but still remember her as a baby and young child. May God's peace and comfort be with Jane's family.
