“ Dear Christy,

All of us over in Georgia were sorry to hear of you losing Jason. He was a friend that we all dearly love and will miss. He was a great artist and had a good heart. You can e-mail me at anytime if you have any questions. And again you have our condolences.

“ I know the after effects of your loss will be hard, but you have the will power and knowledge with the support of your family and friends to continue on. God has Jason cradled in His arms taking good care of him. One day in the far future you will be at his side again. God Bless you and yours.

Love
