“ Jason, you welcomed me into your family nearly 17 years ago. I can still hear you singing "Domo arigato Mr. Robert", and we had a good laugh about me calling you Dad when you were only 27 years old. Words cannot describe how much my heart aches. Sending so much love and prayers to you and the family.

“ We didn't know Jason, but from the obituary he must have been quite a person and served others well. We're so sorry for your loss and sorry we were gone on vacation at the time. Our prayers are still with you. We know Jason is well and in heaven, but the ones left have to go thru the grief. That takes time. We love you and support you.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. I had the pleasure of teaching Kate this past year. She is such an amazing young lady, and I'm sure much of that is because of her parents. Hugs Kate.

“ Jason was one of my yoga students. I feel a tremendous loss knowing I won't see him walking in with all his enthusiasm and openness. Always a kind word and easy conversation. He seemed to truly love his job as a firefighter. All of my prayers are with his family. I am blessed to have known him.
