“ Jay was a good friend of mine. I miss him terribly. Although its been a few years since he passed i still find myself thinking of him often. I don't know how to describe our relationship but Jay looked after me and I will always be thankful to have had him in my life. I can't even drive through The Village in Oklahoma city without missing him. Our last conversation was when he was in the hospital I had no idea it would be our last. I miss him so much.
